THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE MEETS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon, May 14th, at which time Rev. R. F. Davis concluded the Bible study on "Social Redemption", which was very interesting and instructive. Also at the same meeting a short business meeting was held with Mrs. A. C. Gilliam presiding in the absence of Mrs. S.
O. Woolls. It was decided to send a box of supplies to the Mission Home and Training School in San Antonio
this month.
The monthly Program and Social Meeting of this organization met in the home of Mrs. Jno. A. Horger Wednesday afternoon, May 28th, with Mrs. R. F. Davis as leader of the program on the subject of "Stewardship of Christian Education", emphasizing the fact that the agencies for Christian education are the home, the church, and the school,
and that we grow in Christian attitudes and habits through the instruction, hospitality, and spirit of the home. She was assisted in presenting the work being done through educational institutions by Mrs. J. G.
Newton, Mrs. D. H. Fly, Miss Willie Fly and Mrs. S. O. Woolls. At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Horger assisted by Miss Lora King as co-hostess served cake and cookies with apricot sherbet to the seventeen ladies who were present.

JAKE SCHUEHLE TO COACH AT CONROE

A special news dispatch from Conroe, Texas, reports that Charles (Jake) Schuehle, was elected as assistant coach of the Conroe Tigers
at a meeting of the Conroe High School Board Tuesday afternoon of this week. Lawrence McCullough, assistant coach for the past six years, was named head coach to succeed Joe Lagow, who was given a leave of absence to become an assistant physical training director at the Corsicana air field.
Jake was given a 12-month contract, starting July 1st.
Jake, who has been at his home
here since returning from Curtis, Nebraska, where he taught and coached in the Nebraska School of Agriculture, was the hard-hitting fullback on the Rice Owls a few years back, being a member of the championship Owls' team in 1937. He took up further P. E. work at Columbia University after graduating from Rice. He also played professional football in the East.

SCHOOL IS OUT!

The 1940-'41 term of the Hondo High School closed last Friday night with a commencement program that was a distinct departure from long-established formalities. There was no "orator of the evening" and no formal class addresses after the usual stereotyped pattern. Instead, brief, pointed addresses were made by a number of the graduates in which each speaker gave a comprehensive resume of some particular activity of the Senior class.
So complete were these that taken as a whole they constitute a history of the activities of the class over the past term both in its social and sports activities as well as its academic work.
Interspersing these addresses were several musical numbers, under the direction of Mrs. C. D. Sadler.

Following the addresses, Dr. H. J. Meyer, President of the Board of Trustees, presented the graduates with their diplomas and Supt. J. G. Barry presented a number of awards to outstanding students and athletes of the class.

Following is the personnel of the class, composed of fourteen boys and twenty-one girls: Herbert Bulgerin, Bobby Cameron, Harley Caruthers, Walter Haass, Hubert H.
Hermes, Leslie Earl Holloway, Robert
Kollman, Wesley Moehring, Meyer
Morris, Juan Perez, Charles Richter, Johnny Schuehle, Melvin Schulte, James Weyand; Elsie Bel
Bendele, Norma Jane Bless, Evelyn
E. Brucks, Ina Joyce Brucks, Bernice
Collins, Ima Jean Crow, Martha E.
Ferrell, Mary Jane Ferrell, Jonelle
Gaines, Mary Agnes Hubbard, Eloise
Kollman, Novelle Lambert, Mabel
Lindeburg, Virginia Moehring, Asell
Mumme, Mary Lee Oefinger, Dorothy Renken, Eugenia Riff, Vera Taylor, Mary Frances Van Fleet, and Roselyn Weber.

Following are the class addresses
in the order of their delivery:

WELCOME ADDRESS

By Charles Richter, President of the Class
President of the Board of Trustees, Supt. of Schools, Faculty Members, Ladies and Gentlemen:—
In behalf of the Senior Class of 1941, I wish to extend to you a most heartily welcome to our commencement exercises. Tonight we are graduating from high school and entering a different phase of life, a life in which we will be more dependent upon ourselves than ever before.
Some of us will go to college to attain higher education, others will pursue different courses. But what ever it may be, I sincerely hope we will all succeed.
Tonight we will endeavor to bring to you a program somewhat different from those presented in the last two or three years. We will try to tell you what we have learned in the past four years at Hondo High. Our program will be presented in three parts: The academic courses which include English, Spanish, Mathematics, and Social and Natural Sciences;

Vocational courses which include Agriculture, Homemaking, and Commercial subjects; and extra curricular activities in which are included athletics, music, and social functions.
Each of these will be discussed by members of the class. We sincerely hope you will enjoy this program of student participation in which all phases of school life are represented.

FUNCTIONS OF THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

By Eugenia Riff, Salutatorian
The person with an adept ability to express his thoughts in an interesting manner commands one of the greatest arts that can be acquired. He establishes his place in the future by the way in which he conveys his ideas to the listeners. Now that we students have completed the four years of high school English offered here, we have widened our perspective so that it has made us more interesting and expressive individuals.
We feel that now we are in a position better learned to cope with all types, fields, and modes of work through our training in speech development.
Our modern English language has a very colorful background, falling back as far as the Anglo-Saxons in Scotland, and Ireland, to the pomp court of Queen Elizabeth, and finally across the waters to America, where we have molded it to fit the spirit of our democratic lives.
As a basis to our speech development and to encourage a better understanding of it, we have been given a cultural background of both American and English literature.
Literature is more than just an idea that the words may express. In the literature of a nation is revealed that group of people in their morals, standards of living, their ways, and their views. There is no better way to note the progress of a people than to compare the literature of one period to that of another. It seems to convey a personal contact with the folk who lived so many years ago.
We have read works by writers from all classes—those of the highly educated men of the periods who pondered on convictions of the soul

SPRING HOUSE CLEANING

FOUR PERSONS DIE IN CRASH AT LYTLE

A San Antonio man and three sisters were killed late Monday in a head-on car-truck collision on the Laredo Highway near Lytle. They were returning from Pearsall to their homes here. Three of the victims were San Antonians.
The dead:
JOHN A. BLACKBURN, 46, 232
St. Charles Street.
Mrs. WYLIE MOSS, 60, of Poteet.
Mrs. MINNIE HOWARD, 52, 302
Hearne Avenue.
MRS. NETTIE BUSS, 44 of 216
Fairview Avenue.
Mrs. Buss died at the Robert B.
Green Hospital about an hour after she was admitted. The others were killed instantly.
The truck driver, Rojelio Martinez, 27, Rio Grande City, was burned about the hands and face.
His passenger, Santo Rodriguez, 32,
Rio Grande City, was bruised.
The collision occurred shortly after 7 p. m. when a loaded truck and the car crashed and burst into flames.
According to Martinez, he swerved around a car parked in the highway directly into the path of the coming car. Martinez said he had loaded his truck in San Antonio
earlier and had started back to Rio Grande City.
The bodies of Blackburn, Mrs.
Moss and Mrs. Howard were taken to a funeral home in Devine. They were identified by Charles E. Buss, husband of one of the victims, and
M. N. Berry, 330 Princeton Avenue, brother-in-law to the victims.—San Antonio Express.

BLACKBURN FUNERAL SET FOR WEDNESDAY

Services for John A. Blackburn, 46, 232 St. Charles Street, one of four victims of a head-on collision near Lytle Monday night, will be held in San Antonio Wednesday at 10 a. m. by the Rev. Neal Ellis.
Blackburn is survived by his wife,
two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Ahr of LaCoste and Miss Geraldine Blackburn of San Antonio.
Joint services for two of Black-burn's three sisters killed in the collision will be held in Devine Wednesday at 5 p. m. To be buried in Devine will be Mrs. Wylie Moss, 60, of Poteet, and Mrs. Minnie Howard, 52, 302 Hearne Avenue.
Services for Mrs. Nettie Buss, 44, 216 Fairview Avenue, the third sister killed in the accident, will be held in San Antonio Thursday.
The car in which the four were riding Monday night was in collision with a truck driven by Rojelio Martinez, 27, of Rio Grande City, who was burned about the hands and face.
His passenger, Santo Rodriguez, 32,
also of Rio Grande City, was bruised.
—Wednesday's Express.

These unfortunate victims were brother and sisters, children of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blackburn, and were reared near Biry where their parents were long-time and highly respected residents.
This paper joins the many friends of the families in sympathy for those bereaved.

NEW BALCONES FAULT ZONE TEST STARTING IN MEDINA

One of the most interesting wildcats in months along the Balcones Fault zone of South Texas is to spud in this week in Medina County about six miles southwest of Hondo. The test is the No. 1 A. L. Haegelin of Ben Banner of Fort Worth and Shreveport, in the northwest corner of the W. E. Henley survey No. 116, and it is scheduled to go 3,700 feet
or to the Trinity sand.
The test is on block core drilled by a major company with 19 core holes sunk to an average depth of around 500. It is a mile and half southwest of the Taylor field and is due south of a wildcat drilled in 1929 which was extremely interesting. This test logged showing at 314 feet good for around 15 barrels with 43 feet of saturation topped at 875 feet in the Taylor Marl which was estimated good for 75 to 100 barrels at that time. It was carried to the Edwards line and later abandoned, however.
Two other tests are being drilled also on this block, one of them to start very soon, which will test the 900-foot Taylor Marl, and another to be started a little later will go to the Edwards line. Structure on which the new wildcat is located is around five miles in length with some 12 or 14 wells drilled to the Edwards on its edges. The test drilled in 1925 and abandoned, mentioned above, was located north of the fault.—San Antonio Express.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

Away back yonder we put a lot of stock in the argument about woman suffrage, and how it would clean up everything and make politics sweet. Big problems would flatten to mole hills.
I been thinking about it on account of Japan. Our diplomats are not having much luck with Japan. And our economists are arguing pro and con on what to do. But our women folks keep on wearing silk hose. And nobody is getting any place.
We got a problem on our hands in the U. S. A. with cotton, too. The whole South is bulging with cotton.

Sisters, if you are on your toes and want to kinda live-down the "cleanup everything" promises, you have a slick chance now. Switch to cotton stockings versus silk and solve the Japanese problem over night
—also the cotton problem. Show up the diplomats, and the economists. And the old head of the household, so-called, show him up, too.

Yours with the low down,

JOE SERRA

DRAFT CALL NO. 17 ISSUED

The Medina County Draft Board
announces the quota for the County's next draft call, No. 17, is for five selectees to be inducted June 19th. The men selected are Abun-dio Guerrero, volunteer; and Wallace
Jacob Weyand, Franklin M. Atkins, Horace C. Brown and Elmer Christian Burrell. Call No. 16, for negroes, was passed in Medina County.
Gregorio Pruneda, volunteer, was accepted by the local Draft Board on Wednesday, May 28, to replace Jose Alvarado, volunteer in call No. 14,
who was rejected at induction headquarters on account of a deficiency in English.

State Selective Service Headquarters today announced the Army's sixteenth and seventeenth calls on Texas' 351 local boards for 2,319
trainees to be delivered for induction during the period June 11 through June 19.

General J. Watt Page, State Director, said that 214 negroes have been selected to meet the sixteenth call on June 11, and on the seventeenth call 2,105 white men will be inducted between June 12 and June 19.

When these two calls have been completed, Texas will have 29,704 men in training under the Selective Service Act. Texas is credited with 825,429 men registered last October, and the quota assigned by the War Department for the first year of the program ending June 30 is approximately 33,213 trainees.

General Page said that Texas leads the Nation in number of men furnished the armed forces. In addition to the 29,704 men called under Selective Service, Texas has more than 80,000 men—all volunteers—
serving in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, National Guard and Coast Guard.

MISSIONS ON THE ROAD

During the past week ending Sunday, May 25th, the San Antonio Missions by playing 500 ball, have again entered the first division in the Texas League race. With the standings of the clubs, as of Sunday night, it will be noticed that with the exception of Houston, the clubs are all so closely bunched that a win by any club changes the entire standings of the League. While the San Antonio club now is in fourth place, there is only a game and a half separating it from third place, and four games from second place. Whereas Dallas, who occupies the cellar at the present time, is only one game out of the first division. This would tend to show that the clubs of the League are evenly balanced, thus making a very interesting race.

The San Antonio club, now on the road, plays Beaumont May 26th, with an off day on Tuesday. From there they move to Shreveport for a three game stand, then back to Houston for three games in two days.

Benny Huffman, popular catcher of the San Antonio Missions, has been placed on the sick list on account of an eye infection, and did not make the road trip. The San Antonio club returns to San Antonio on Monday, June 2nd, for a home stand of fourteen days.

and other deep rooted matters as that, to the lowliest laborer who found his theme in a common everyday event of his day.

Thus we have come to an understanding of our language. We understand as well as use the English language correctly. We are going to grasp the very richest beauty from our native language and use it for intelligent interpretation and application.

NATURAL SCIENCE

By Herbert Bulgerin

It is with but great pleasure on my part that I have been selected to speak on the Natural Science courses that Hondo High School has offered me during the past four years.

There are three separate and distinct Science courses taught in High School, each serving a particular purpose, and each giving the student new views on everyday things which he might have occasion to encounter.

First, General Science, for the Freshman or Sophomore, is a combination of Biology and Physics. One of its chief purposes is to teach the student to assume a scientific and unprejudiced view on things he does not understand. It shows him that the hundreds of appliances and phenomena he observes every day and accepts without thought as to why they came to be, are actually the creations of modern science, or in the case of natural phenomena, may be explained by established laws of physics. General Science teaches the student to think.

Biology is primarily a study of all forms of plant and animal life. It includes the studying of the four plant phyla from algae to trees, and the ten animal phyla from amoeba to the complex human body. The student is taught the workings of the bodies of animals that he did not know even existed. A great part of the course deals with the respiratory, digestive, circulatory, and nervous systems; also, the processes of metabolism and assimilation.

Physics is the most advanced course and is offered to Juniors and Seniors. It deals with inorganic substances and machines, electricity, light, sound, work, and power. In this course the student is taught the workings of many of our everyday appliances and machines. He is shown the true value of science to mankind, and finds that even this "age of miracles" is lacking much.

In science, as in anything else, a student must be able to prove a point before it is accepted. It is for this reason that each class has four periods of laboratory work each week. During these periods he performs with his own hands experiments that show the things he has read in his text are true. A lot of expensive equipment is necessarily required, and Hondo High School's is valued at $2,000. General Science students generate gasses from chemicals, make compounds and mixtures, and perform some of the simpler experiments that the other two classes do. Biology students are furnished with specimen and instruments for dissecting, with 4 excellent microscopes, and with various slides and mounts. The Physics students experiment with levers, pulleys, dry cells, a number of fine electric meters, and with various chemicals and metals.

Besides teaching the student the workings of devices, of Nature, and of common phenomena which he does not understand, the three Natural Sciences offered in Hondo High School lead him to a way of thinking and analyzing situations that is definitely beneficial. He is taught to weigh each feature of some perplexing situation carefully, and his unprejudiced views will be to his own advantage.

MATHEMATICS

By Bobby Kollman

The teaching of mathematics is an all-important factor in the curriculum of any good high school. Mathematics is taught for two specific reasons and those reasons are: for the practical value and the culture it imparts.

The practical value of mathematics is very great. It is indeed no exaggeration to assert that our whole modern civilization owes its peculiar stamp indirectly to mathematics.

The principal value of mathematical study arises from the fact that it exercises the reasoning power more, and claims from the memory less, than any other secondary school subject. The study of mathematics should result in the development of power, rather than in the acquisition of facts. Not the one who knows a great many mathematical facts is a good mathematician, however, but the one who can apply these facts intelligently, who can discover facts that are new to him, and who can reconstruct those facts which he has forgotten. The bulk of all mathematical work is reasoning. Especially is this true of geometry, which if properly taught and assimilated by the students is nearly all reasoning.

Of the students starting high school in the eighth grade, approximately sixty per cent do not attend college. Some quit before they graduate and others do not have the chance to attend college after graduation.

Our high school curriculum is arranged to accommodate both that 60 per cent of the students that do not attend college and also that forty per cent that do continue their education. The program that Hondo High School offers includes Plain Geometry, Algebra I, and General Math, which is based on arithmetic, but touches some phases of Algebra and Geometry.

One unit of General Math and one unit of Algebra are now required in the place of the former requirement of two units of Algebra because it is thought that General Math has more practical value for those who do not wish to attend college.

For that forty per cent of the students who do attend college, a half of a unit in Algebra II is offered as a Senior subject so the student who attends an institution of higher learning will have this course just before he takes a course in the higher mathematics of college. In this way the fundamentals and principles of Algebra are fresh on the student's mind and so will help him to grasp the mathematics he takes up without, shall we say, "digging for it!"

An acquaintance with the fundamental facts and methods of mathematics seems to be necessary for general culture. A science that is closely interwoven with most mental achievements of the race, that is found in all civilizations, represents the most finished types of exact thinking cannot be ignored by the man of culture.

A person unfamiliar with the elements of mathematics cannot fully comprehend the simplest facts of astronomy, nor is he able to read and to grasp the accounts of the wonderful discoveries and inventions of our time.

In closing I would like to repeat that mathematics is primarily taught on account of the mental training it affords, and only secondarily on account of the knowledge of fact it imparts. The true end of mathematical teaching is power and not knowledge.

SPANISH

By Mary Lee Oefinger

I have been chosen to present to you the Spanish department of our high school. Although it is not necessary for students to take this particular subject, many do so and find it interesting and beneficial. This enables students to obtain a rather wide knowledge of the language. In order to achieve credit for any amount of Spanish it is necessary for a student to take a two-year course. To become proficient in Spanish, it is not only necessary to be able to carry on a conversation fluently but also to have a knowledge of using the correct grammatical forms. Our class has drilled chiefly on conjugation of verbs, reading and sentence structure.

In studying Spanish we learn to know the Spanish speaking people better. The Spanish speaking people have various customs. One of the most widely known is the siesta which is a nap they take after lunch. Not only is this custom prevalent in the homes but is sometimes carried into the classrooms. This old tradition has been carried over from the early Spanish people. The customs of Spain are also practiced in the new world by Spanish speaking people. Another custom which is a unique one is the custom of eating five meals a day. The study of Spanish has three main values. The cultural, the practical, and the value for students who intend to go to college.

By cultural value, I mean that broadening of one's knowledge of how other people live, their customs, their ambitions, and their national spirit. The practical is the value of being able to carry on business relations with the Spanish American people. A student who has taken Spanish in high school has a much better chance of learning the language in college than a student who has never had practice at speaking foreign language.

HISTORY

By Dorothy Renken

History is a chart of humanity and its developments. It shows in broad lines the direction and condition of human progress and degeneration; the possibilities and limitations, the growths and inhibitions of human life. It is not merely the record of battle and of births and deaths of rulers. It is the biography, perhaps one might say the autobiography of the human race.

Some people ask why do we study history. "Study the past to discern the future," said Confucius.

History is also the beginning of culture. A comprehensive view of the past is the background of any intelligent picture of the present day. Without a knowledge of the past, human beings would be staggering in the dark, towards a darkness into which no eye could penetrate. Science has made the scientific curve. It is now one of the necessities of business. It traces tendencies and directions and probable destinations. History is the scientific curve of mankind. One might say that history is not the sternlight of a ship; it is the headlamp of a locomotive.

In the history department of this school these various subjects are taught: American History and Government, World History and Texas History. Under American History and Government is taught the means by which our government developed from a rudimentary form to a complex and yet well harmonized government. We learn about the ancient history of the world which begins with the earliest written record.

One of the requirements a high school student has to have before graduating is a course in national and state government, and two years of other history. In this course, we learn about the functions of Congress—such as, the way in which a bill becomes a law, the powers of each of the three main departments, interstate commerce, taxation, internal improvements, suffrage, and so on.

One could study the national and state constitutions a whole school year and never learn all there is to learn about the functions of our government.

Our government has provided us with free education, so free education is expected to preserve democracy for us, for democracy improves the individual. The responsibility imposed in a self-governing community stimulates initiative and ambition.

COMMERCIAL

By Ima Jean Crow

High Schools can give only a beginning toward the knowledge required in the business world. An acceptable foundation with a certain goal in mind, provides the basic fundamentals required in business. Schools can furnish information, develop skill, and provide for the exercise of judgment on typical industrial and commercial problems. The commercial studies offered by Hondo High School are exceptional basic for a business course. Comments on the subjects offered, have been made by representatives from several Business Colleges.

The elementary step of business knowledge is Jr. Business Training. It is the foundation, built up with the bricks of other commercial courses that will determine the student's future in business education. The mortar is supplied by the facts and principles so closely related in commercial arithmetic and commercial law. Typing smooths the finished product, giving it usefulness and making it profitable.

The modern trend in education is the socialization of business courses; that is, the making of these courses valuable to everyone handling his own affairs, in completing transactions in business, and in understanding his relation to society.

Two of the courses, commercial law and commercial arithmetic are half-term courses. The shortness of the studying tends to arouse the pupil's interest in these subjects. This increased interest is certain to result in an increase in the completeness with which each lesson is mastered and in the length of time the studies are retained.

Mastery of the subjects on the part of the pupils is facilitated by the arrangement of material. Problems that come closely within the experience of pupils are presented early in the courses. Various topics under a particular relationship are assigned appropriately for periodic class recitations or discussions.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

By Walter Haass

Vocational agriculture was first begun in the agricultural department of the Hondo High School in July of 1935 and was under the supervision of Mr. C. D. Sadler, the present instructor.

The main purpose of Vocational Agriculture is to develop well balanced farming and ranching programs among the boys who are on the farm or ranch and boys who plan to make farming or ranching their future vocation.

Vocational agriculture also acts as an adult educational service for farmers who are out of school and for those who had no opportunity to attend school. This service is accomplished to a great extent by meetings held for the adults and by demonstrations given to them by the vocational teacher and pupils.

Another encouragement of the department of vocational agriculture is the breeding of better livestock and poultry. Along with this comes the encouragement of improving plants and the use of improvised farming and ranching practices as recommended by State Agricultural Colleges, Experimental Stations and the United States Department of Agriculture.

Vocational agriculture consists of three phases: All day classes consisting of boys who are enrolled in schools; Part time classes, consisting of boys who are out of school, but who have not become established in farming or ranching; and evening classes for adults, both men and women, who are established in farming or ranching.

Vocational agriculture is taught differently from other subjects in that subject matter is first taught, then practiced out of classes; the pupil is tested and if he hasn't completely mastered the subject, the procedure is repeated.

Also in this department pupils are taught the importance of record keeping. Farming and ranching require record keeping the same as any other business, but few realize that farming is a business, and that almost every other industry is dependent on the farm or ranch either directly or indirectly.

HOMEMAKING

By Mary Frances Van Fleet, Valedictorian

In Hondo High School, there are three years of Homemaking offered. This vocational subject has been affiliated since it was placed in the curriculum. The purpose of this subject is to renew the forgotten arts of homemaking for the girls who will go into the homes of the future. It is true that sewing and cooking are parts of the knowledge acquired, but there is much more to be obtained from courses which are offered. All of the activities of the home are included in the work of this department—from the lowest task of dishwashing to the highest award of being a gracious hostess.

The three years of work have been planned so that the first year tasks are elementary and are merely an introduction, with experiences widening through the development in the last two years. Essentials of menu planning, food needs of the individual, food preparation and service, home planning, personal grooming, nutrition, home management and improvement, child care, and sewing are all covered by gradual steps in each of the three years of work.

The motto of the department is "To learn to do by doing". This accounts for the projects of actual experience for the classes. Garments are modeled at a spring style show as a goal for the sewing unit. Dinners are served to guests as an achievement of the foods unit. Pupils learn that correct food service is as important as the preparation of the food. In sewing it is not so important to sew a fine seam as it is to be well-groomed and present an attractive appearance.

To supplement the achievements of this work, there is a club organization to further the interests of homemaking students. Meetings are held twice during the month, with occasional social affairs for the members. These meetings are made interesting by guest speakers. There are area meetings held over the state in the fall and spring that furnish valuable social contacts for the club members who attend. The State Rally is another important meeting for homemakers that is held at the close of school for the club delegates and those who have gained the trip as a reward for their class achievements.

All in all, the homemaking course is one of great importance in the curriculum of our high school and offers valuable opportunities to those who choose this course.

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES FOR BOYS

By James Weynand

Athletic sports are among the most important of the extra curricular activities which are offered in our high school. The most popular sports are football, baseball, basketball, track and tennis. These do not develop the student physically only but also mentally. The student who participates in any of these sports does not only receive an education from the work that he does in the class room but also receives part of a necessary education from the trips that are taken by the organization of which he is a member. And by the people that he associates with.

For example, a student who participates in football may go to Victoria, Del Rio, Carrizo Spring, Crystal City and many other cities to which he would not have gone had he not been a member of the football squad. And in the event that the team wins he may have the honor of being a member of a District, Bi-District or a Regional championship team.

If he participates in baseball he may travel to Dallas, Austin, Gonzales, Randolph Field and many other cities and places having a historical background. He also has the opportunity of being a member of a State Championship team. Participants in Basketball, Tennis, and Track also travel to many cities outside of Hondo.

The Senior class of "41" has been very active in many sports, having members of its class on the Bi-District Champion football team of 1937, on the District Championship football team of 1939, and on the State High School Championship basketball team in 1939. Also many of the class members have lettered in Basketball, Tennis and Track.

There are also many extra curricular activities pertaining to the Future Farmers' organization. The most important of these activities is the summer fishing trip. Last year the organization spent a week on the Devil's River above Del Rio. This year plans are now being made for another fishing trip.

Each year the chapter holds an F. F. A. track meet and Future Farmer members from all cities in the Winter Garden District attend this meet.

The members of the Hondo chapter also hold special recreational meetings in the gymnasium, at which teams are chosen and the entire meeting is spent playing basketball and volleyball. This recreational meeting enables boys who are not large enough or do not have the ability to play on the high school team to participate in some sport.

Each year the Senior class presents a play near the end of the school term and the money which is taken in at this affair is used to buy a gift for the school. This year the senior class presented "Mother-in-law Blues", which was a comedy in three acts. The production was very successful, having a record crowd which proved very remunerative for the class. With the proceeds from the play, the class has presented to the school this public address system which is now being used for the commencement exercises. This address system will be used at all the future social affairs of our school which will include the football games of next year.

Bill (Jitterbug) Henderson of Houston is the first four-sport letterman in Texas Aggie history at College Station. In baseball he is a pitcher; in football an end; in basketball a guard, and in field and track events he is a javelin thrower, discus thrower, shot putter, high jumper and broad jumper. And just to top off his career as an A. and M. athlete he won the heavyweight boxing championship of that 6,534-man school. Bill declares he is not a bit superstitious—but he asked for that No. 13 shirt.

The Texas State Federation Of Labor SPEAKS!

Through Its Secretary, Harry W. Acreman

"A Very Important Asset!"

In a letter dated May 5, 1941, from Hon. James L. Houghteling, Assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury at Washington, we find the following declaration:

"The cooperation of the Federations and Unions making up the American Federation of Labor is a very important asset to the United States in its National Defense Program!"

The letter calls attention to the action of President William Green of the American Federation of Labor, "in connection with the letter which he is just sending to the Officers of State Federations of Labor, National and International Unions, and Federal Labor Unions, on the subject of Defense Savings Bonds."

The Texas State Federation of Labor joins heartily in the campaign to encourage people of all walks of life to purchase these Defense Savings Bonds. Full cooperation is underway to give complete distribution of literature on this subject supplied by the Treasury Department. Every effort is being put forth to see that the individual members of all affiliate organizations have called to their attention this opportunity for further service to Our Country, as well as a sensible systematic savings plan for themselves.

Having set the standard for the Nation in being the Number 1 State in Labor Cooperation in defense projects construction, Texas Labor can be depended upon to be in the front ranks in this branch of the National Defense Program!

Thousands from our membership, mostly young men, have responded to the call to the colors, and all others eligible are ready for service in the military and naval forces.

An even greater number of men and women in the ranks of Texas Labor are doing their part loyally by putting forth their best efforts in preparation and operation of defense industries, and in producing and transporting materials and crops needed in the national defense.

And everyone is expected to have his purse open to Uncle Sam to help provide the money to meet this emergency; and one of the best ways of doing so is by buying Defense Savings Bonds. Our Government can depend upon the men and women of Texas who work to give the same high standard of cooperation in this effort as they have in the construction part of the National Defense Program.

Texas Labor accepts its responsibility cheerfully! National Defense is putting money in pay envelopes. It means more for the farmers and stockmen, and for the merchants. Thoughtful people save a part of their earnings. Defense Savings Bonds afford you that opportunity!

We feel certain that without all these extra curricular activities that are available to all the students, the high school life of the senior class of 1941 would not have been so varied and interesting.

EXTRA CURRICULAR FOR GIRLS

By Novelle Lambert

The Glee Club, which consisted of 41 members this year, is a well known extra-curricular organization. The officers of the club this year were: President, Laura Lee Leinweber; vice-president, Dorothy Williams; secretary-treasurer, Eloise Kollman; librarian, Norma Jane Bless; and reporter, Jonelle Gaines. The Glee Club attends the district music meets every year. This year the meet was held in Uvalde, Hondo placed 5 firsts and 3 seconds. The entertainments for which they have singing are P. T. A. programs, Father's Night, and on November 11th, for the dedication of the new gym.

All the members, with the help of the high school boys, presented an Indian Pageant this year. With the proceeds from this a victrola was purchased. Last year the proceeds from the Musical Revue helped buy the banner for the pep squad.

In the club there are a number of people capable of solo work and a sextette. The director is Mrs. C. D. Sadler.

The Owl Staff is made up of a group of students whose duty is to publish weekly the school paper. They are chosen each year by the English teacher, who is the sponsor, and the superintendent. The members of the staff are entirely responsible for the publication. The expenses are defrayed by advertisements which are put in the paper by local business men. Just before the Senior Play starts, the Junior Owl Staff takes over the responsibility of the paper. This staff usually has few changes for the following year. The Senior Owl Staff this year consisted of: editor, Herbert Bulzerin; business manager, Bobby Kollman; sports editors, James Weyand and Wesley Moehring; society editor, Mary Frances Van Fleet; straight news reporters, Charles Richter, Norma Jane Bless, Laura Lee Leinweber and Jonelle Gaines.

At every football game the pep squad is on hand to cheer and inspire the boys. This year there were 24 members in the pep squad and 18 in the drum corp, including the players of the bass drum and cymbals. Each year the girls choose their leaders. There are usually three, one head leader and two assistant leaders. This year the leaders were Jonelle Gaines, head leader, and Stella Grell and Frances Bendele, assistant leaders. The sponsor was Miss Mary Beth Wiese and the club mother was Mrs. E. J. Leinweber.

At the end of each football season the pep squad girls honor the football squad with a banquet and dance. This is paid for with the money received from selling cold drinks, sandwiches and candy at every game that is played on the home field.

The Future Homemakers of Texas Club is also an extra curricular organization.

We feel sure that our high school education would not have been complete without these organizations. They have helped very much in rounding-out our high school activities.

SOCIAL LIFE

By Norma Jane Bless

I am here to give you a brief resume of the social activities that have gone on in Hondo High for the past year.

A history of this year's social events could almost be a history of our new gymnasium, for every event on our social calendar has culminated in the gym.

The Lions Club sponsored the first dance to be held in the gym honoring the graduates of 1940.

The biggest affair of the year came with Homecoming on November 11th, when the alumnus of Hondo High School, dating back to the year of 1904, greeted old classmates. The most important event of the day occurred when the Hondo High School boys defeated the Del Rio Wildcats before a record breaking crowd of spectators. The P. T. A. also served barbecue at noon. The November 11th celebration climaxed with a successful dance in the gym.

At the close of a successful football season, the Pep Squad honored the football team with a banquet and dance. This yearly affair is considered the most colorful event of the year. Since the football season ended near the Christmas season, the study hall, which was improvised banquet room, was decorated in the Christmas motif. The same idea, with our school colors, blue and white, was carried out in the gym or ballroom, where everyone enjoyed dancing to Emilio Caceres and his orchestra.

Every year each division of the Future Farmers of America holds a father-son banquet, and this year the Hondo Chapter and the Winter Garden District banquets were combined, whereupon the Hondo Chapter acted as host and presented the banquet in the gymnasium. The purpose of these banquets is to familiarize the parents with the work of the Future Farmers. This banquet was put on by the P. T. A. in which the parents, F. P. A. boys and dates, and the F. F. A. Sweethearts were present. The program was presented during the serving of a delicious meal, and immediately following the banquet a dance was held in the gym.

We have other things in our year's social calendar besides formal affairs and these are picnics, which are looked forward to by each and every one of us. Around this time of the year most of our nearby picnic spots are crowded with Hondo High students and teachers. The biggest get-together of the spring occurred when the Seniors honored the Juniors with a picnic at ConCan on May 10. Many out-door pleasures such as swimming, hiking, dancing, and picture taking served as pastimes for the students. Also a delicious picnic lunch was served to all. The Freshmen and Sophomores usually combine and they too go for an all day picnic to some near-by pleasure spot.

For our educational benefit, Mr. Barry made possible this past year for us to be presented with a series of programs sponsored by the Southern Schools Assembly Association.

This series of programs included Georgina Ballina and her popular Spanish Dances, Karl Bolander's hobbies, the Blue Danube Trio, the Larry Mason animal show, Mr. Frye and his magic tricks and the Ritz Trumpteters.

The first of these series of programs consisted of Georgina Ballina and her popular Spanish and Mexican folk dances. From this we learned the various dances and customs for different occasions in Spain and Mexico.

The Blue Danube Trio, which consisted of two vocalists and one pianist, was very educational. The life of Johann Strauss was given, which not only proved educational, but amusing. The trio sang and played many well-known classical and semi-classical pieces.

To end the series of assembly programs for the year, the Ritz Trumpteters were on hand to give us their version of music on not only trumpets, but most any kind of wind instrument available. The accompaniment also gave us several solos on the piano.

In almost any high school or college, it is customary for the Juniors to honor the Seniors with some kind of affair and time repeated itself this year, when the Juniors entertained the Seniors with a spring formal in the gymnasium. The Seniors, Juniors, faculty, and board members were present to admire the beautifully decorated gym with all of its colorful spring flowers and ivy for a background. The girls also added a bit of color to the picture in their spring dresses, and I can truthfully say that everyone had a most enjoyable time dancing to Buddy Hancock and his orchestra.

Another annual event in Hondo High School is the Glee Club Dance. This dance usually finishes the Glee Club's activities for the year, but this year the Physical Education Department joined the Glee Club to present a beautiful Indian Pageant in the gym. Here again the gym proved useful other than just for sports and playtime activities. This dance, sponsored by the Glee Club and Physical Ed. department, was given in honor of the members of the Indian Pageant.

Everyone enjoys going places and so do we students of H. H. S. At some time during the past year, almost every organization in school made a trip. Not only last year, but every year the Future Farmers of America travel to Kingsville to participate in the animal judging contest. The Future Homemakers of Texas also attend a similar event each year. The purpose of this meeting is to familiarize the Homemaking girls of Texas with the different activities of each division. The Glee Club also participate in an annual contest. This contest consists wholly of vocal and instrumental numbers.

Friends, I hope I have given you a clear picture and understanding of what we students of H. H. S. have participated in, in the way of social events. We feel that these activities are a very necessary part of our high school education.

LACOSTE HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ORGANIZED

Following the graduation exercises of the LaCoste High School Seniors on Tuesday evening, May 20, the class of '41 was host to the classes of '37, '38, '39, and '40 with an informal reception in the high school library and study hall.

After a half hour or more of chatting with each other, Hazel Spivey, the '41 president called the meeting to order and asked if the representatives of the various classes desired to organize an alumni association. Considerable enthusiasm was expressed for an organization, and Vincent Keller was elected president. The president took the chair and continued the organization with election of the following officers: Hazel Jungman, vice-president; Isabel Mangold, recording secretary; Bernard Jungman, Treasurer. Ethel Mae Koehler, Gladys Halty, and Doris Koehler were elected for a committee to draw up a constitution and set of by-laws to be acted upon at a future meeting. It was decided by a vote on a motion to hold an annual meeting following the graduation exercises each year.

A class of four girls and six boys made their Solemn Communion in St. Mary's Church here Sunday, May 18. Those in the class were: Charmaine Ahr, Grace Biediger, Mary Nentwich, Lucille Mueller, Dennis Rihn, Robert Hutzler, Leroy Keller, Lee Allen Salzman, Carlisle Keller and Ralph Hutzler.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Zinsmeyer moved to the farm home formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hutzler and family, while Mr. and Mrs. Hutzler and family moved into the S. Loessberg residence here in LaCoste the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Klabunde and daughter, Helen, from Boerne visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rihn and daughters here last Thursday. Henry Allen Springfield left this week for Marion where he is employed as relief depot agent.

Clyde Bader from Three Point was in LaCoste on business Tuesday morning.

Miss Lena Geiger of San Antonio spent several days with relatives in LaCoste recently.

BANDERA NEWS

The Bandera New Era.

JOHN A. WIEMERS PASSES ON

The community was shocked and deeply grieved last Monday morning when the news went forth that our worthy townsman, John A. Wiemers had died almost suddenly. Mr. Wiemers was loading wool at the ranch of Sammie Stevens north of town when he was stricken. He was brought to town for medical attention, but every physician in the city was out in the country on calls, so it was decided to rush the stricken man to Hondo to a doctor, and a start was made, but he passed away when only a mile from town. He was conscious right up to the end.

Funeral services were held at the Plummer Funeral Home in Bandera Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, by Rev. E. F. Kluck, pastor of the Bandera Methodist Church. Interment was made in the Bandera Cemetery. The funeral cortege was the largest that has been seen in the city for a long time; friends and relatives came from Hondo, Castroville, Quibi, New Fountain, and many other places to pay the tribute of respect to this man, who was loved and esteemed by everybody. The pallbearers were Vernon Merritt, Les Short, E. L. Caffall, Willie Wiemers, Ben Henry Wiemers and Edgar Muennink.

John Alfred Wiemers was born October 9, 1889, in Kerrville, Texas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Wiemers. Later the family moved to Hondo, where deceased resided until 1915. Since 1934 he made his home in Bandera, and engaged in the transfer business. On December 22, 1915, he was happily married to Miss Annie Searcy. To this union five children were born: Mrs. Florence Gray of San Antonio, Miss Leora Wiemers, Charles, Leroy and Claude Wiemers, all of whom, with the wife and mother, survive him. There are two grandchildren, Carolyn Sue and Helen Marie Gray. Also surviving are his aged mother, Mrs. Zeda Wiemers of San Antonio and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. W. J. Hartmann, M. F. Wiemers and O. J. Wiemers of Hondo; Mrs. Katie Muennink and Mrs. Charles Ward of Freer, B. G. Wiemers of Bandera, R. S. Wiemers and Miss Agnes Wiemers of San Antonio.

INFORMATION FOR SELECTEES

Warning to all registrants under the Selective Service Act that they must notify their local boards promptly of any change of address, or become liable to severe penalties, was given today by General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director.

It is the duty of every registrant to keep his local board advised at all times of the address at which mail will reach him without delay, General Page pointed out. Any registrant who fails to conform to the Selective Service Act and Regulations, he said, is liable to punishment "by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

General Page stated that so far most cases of delinquency have been found to have been due to ignorance of the law or carelessness on the part of registrants. It is the policy of the Selective Service System, he said, and of the Department of Justice which is charged with the enforcement of the Act, to be lenient in cases where it is apparent there has been no willful intent to violate the law. Nevertheless, he stressed, investigation of such cases is taking up much valuable time of local boards and of the Department of Justice agents which should be devoted to urgent work for National Defense.

To relieve this situation, and also to protect registrants who do not willfully attempt to violate the law, General Page has asked all local boards to use every means of investigation at their disposal and to wait a reasonable length of time before reporting apparent cases of delinquency to the Department of Justice.

In this connection, General Page said that the voluntary assistance of local and State police officials may be used in finding a registrant who has failed to respond to notification. He said:

"If, after a reasonable effort on the part of the local board, with the assistance of the local or State police, the whereabouts of the delinquent registrant cannot be ascertained, and nothing has been heard from him in response to notification, the local board then should report the delinquent to the United States Attorney."

MISS ROTHE WEDS IN SAN ANTONIO

The marriage of Miss Laurinda Rothe, daughter of Judge Arthur H. Rothe of Medina County, and Dennis William McGee Jr., of San Antonio, was solemnized at 8:15 Saturday morning, May 24, at St. Mary's Church in San Antonio. Rev. Fr. Charles Haas, O. M. I., performed the ceremony and officiated at the nuptial mass.

The main altar was adorned with tall vases of salmon-pink gladioluses and lighted white tapers. Beautiful nuptial music was played on the pipe organ by Prof. John M. Steinfeldt and Mr. William Fogarty sang.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a redingote style dress of navy blue mesh-cloth trimmed with a collar of white waffle-pique edged with white ruching. White ruching also edged the elbow length sleeves. Her hat was white waffle-pique with a tiny blue veil and blue bows, and her shoes and bag were navy blue. She wore long white gloves and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and white stephanotis. Her only jewelry was an antique gold and black onyx cross which had belonged to her great Grandmother Ney.

Miss Patricia McGee, niece of the bridegroom, of San Antonio, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a dusty pink linen frock embroidered in white, a white off-the-face straw hat, white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and blue flowers.

Ferd Louis Rothe, brother of the bride, assisted Mr. McGee as best man.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Twomey, 201 South Mesquite, in San Antonio. The table was laid with a white glazed pottery bowl of white stock pink roses and pink and white as pink ribbon streamers extended from the white candelabra holding lighted white tapers to the chandelier over the table. The buffet had a graceful arrangement of sword fern and Easter lilies in a white vase.

The bride's cake was a rectangular confection iced in white and decorated with pink sugar-spun rosebuds. Mrs. G. H. Rothe of San Antonio poured the coffee and Miss Josie Rothe of D'Hanis served the cake, after the bride, assisted by the bridegroom, had cut the first slice. Refreshments of sandwiches, salted nuts, pink and white mints, cake and coffee were served.

Miss Ethel Rothe of D'Hanis was in charge of the bride's book in which about 50 guests registered.

Mr. and Mrs. McGee left on a brief bridal trip in the hill country and are now at home at 1910 W. Mistletoe, San Antonio, Texas.

The bride is a graduate of the art department of Our Lady of the Lake College and has been teaching in the Hondo schools. Mr. McGee is employed in the National Bank of Fort San Houston.

Among the relatives from out-of-town at the wedding and reception were Judge and Mrs. Arthur H. Rothe, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reinhart, Miss Lena Reinhart, Mrs. H. C. Rothe, Misses Josie, Lucy and Ethel Rothe, and Miss Cornelia Koch of D'Hanis, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Fohn of Uvalde, Mrs. Harry Mueller and sons and Mr. Gus Rothe of Hondo.

BARNES-WOOLLS NUPTIALS

A wedding of simple dignity was that in which Miss Helen Lucille Woolls, daughter of Mrs. Ella Woolls, and Theodore Caruthers Barnes were united in marriage at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 25, in the First Methodist Church of Hondo. The bride's brother-in-law, Rev. Horace M. King, of the University of San Antonio, officiated.

The chancel rail was banked with fern, pink sweetpeas and white Queen Anne's lace. Two floor baskets of white spring flowers on each side of the altar and a banking of fern formed the background for the ceremony.

Mrs. S. O. Woolls played the traditional nuptial music and also accompanied Mrs. E. W. Howard Jr. of Pearsall, daughter of the bridegroom, who sang "At Dawning". The vows were made to the soft accompaniment of "Liebestraum".

Mrs. Woolls wore a frock of powder blue crepe and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and blue cornflowers. Mrs. Howard wore powder blue silk alpaca and a corsage of blue cornflowers, red sweetpeas and white feverfew.

The bride entered with her nephew, Leslie Earl Holloway. She wore a grey silk crepe afternoon dress made on simple lines with a deep V-yoke of grey lace. Her hat was of light blue straw trimmed with navy blue, her gloves were light blue and her shoes of navy blue. She wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and carried a small white Bible.

Mr. Barnes was attended by his nephew, Winfred Barnes, of McAllen.

Mrs. Ella Woolls, the bride's mother, was attired in teal blue alpaca with a corsage of pink sweetpeas.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Barnes left for a three weeks' motor trip through the West, including Carlsbad Cavern, Grand Canyon and Yellowstone National park. They will make their home in Hondo.

Out-of-town relatives here for the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. Horace M. King, Mrs. W. W. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Barnes and daughter, Fay Jean, of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. John Earle Barden and two children, Jimmy and Brenda Sue, of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Howard Jr. of Pearsall; Mrs. F. H. Woolls and son, Bartow Woolls, and Mrs. John Gunn of Cotulla.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

The surprise marriage of Leslie Earl Holloway of Hondo and Miss Dorothy Davenport of Uvalde was announced the past week-end. The wedding occurred on January 25, 1941, at Crystal City with the Methodist minister of that city officiating. One of the attendants was Mrs. Sterling Fly of Crystal City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Davenport of Uvalde. She is employed in that city but will join her husband here as soon as she can be replaced by her employer. Leslie Earl is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Holloway of Hondo and graduated last week from Hondo High School. He assists his father in his hardware business here.

FORMER TEACHER WEDS

A wedding of interest to many friends and former pupils of the bride is that of Miss Emma Hodges and Russell Hendricks, which occurred at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, May 22, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. F. Hodges, in Bandera. Rev. E. F. Kluck, pastor of the Bandera Methodist Church, officiated, and attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace of San Antonio. Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks will make their home in San Antonio. The bride is a former teacher in the Hondo schools and was the honoree of a number of parties here prior to her marriage.

NEW AUTO REGISTRATIONS

May 24, Devine Creamery, Devine, Ford truck.
May 28, J. Travis Lilly, Devine, Chevrolet sedan.

REV. FALKENBERG WEDS

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of relatives and friends of the bridegroom here is that of Miss Evangeline Staats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Staats, and Rev. Milton A. Falkenberg, son of Rev. August Falkenberg and the late Rev. Falkenberg, which was solemnized Tuesday evening in the Christ Lutheran Church in Alamo Heights, San Antonio, by the Rev. H. W. Dannhaus of Boerne.

Mrs. A. D. Nuhn of New Braunfels sang the wedding solo, accompanied at the organ by Miss Elsie Habueta.

The bride, who entered with her father, wore an exquisite gown of sheer white marquisette fashioned with bishop sleeves caught in at the wrist with shirred bands. The fitted bodice had a pleated midriff to which was gathered the full skirt falling into a long train. The fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a heart-shaped brim of gathered illusion accented with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Mildred Hebs of San Antonio and Miss Joline Staats of New Braunfels were her bridesmaids. Miss Hebs' gown in blue and Miss Staats' gown in yellow were fashioned alike of marquisette with a long waistline and full skirts trimmed with small yellow and blue flowers. Similar flowers trimmed their narrow brimmed bonnets and they carried colonial bouquets of yellow rosebuds and blue delphinium.

The Rev. Wilson Hill of Damon, Texas, was best man and the groomsmen was Clifton Springer. Serving as ushers were Albert Sprenger Jr. and LeRoy Mueller.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The bride's cake was a ring-shaped confection embossed with spun sugar blossoms. Assisting in serving were Mesdames Louis Lacey, J. M. Schuchardt, Jack Buske, W. H. Vollmar, Martin Ebert, Erich Menger, and Misses Elizabeth Harrison, Velma Kelmacher and Samuella Lockhart.

Miss Lucille Staats of New Braunfels was in charge of the bride's book.

When the couple left for a wedding trip, the bride wore a navy blue costume with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. After June 10 they will be at home in Corpus Christi.

Among those here for the funeral of the late Miss Josephine Brucks Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Eickenrodt, Don Wyman, Ed Brucks, Mrs. Pat Dillon, Mrs. Emmet Cameron and daughters, Mary Ruth and Sarah Maude, and Octavia Davis of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Matt Bader of LaCoste; Mr. W. Ethridge of Bandera, Fred McReynolds of Comstock, Mrs. Willis Giffin and daughters of Sabin, and many other friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Earle Barden and two children, Jimmy and Brenda Sue, arrived Sunday from their home in Houston for the wedding of Mrs. Barden's father, Mr. T. C. Barnes, and Miss Lucille Woolls. Mr. Barden, who was recently elected Superintendent of the Aldine Consolidated School near Houston, returned home Tuesday, while his family remained here for an extended visit.

Fred Jagge of Castroville had a bunch of good fat calves on the market Tuesday consigned to Kothmann's. Four fat heifers estimated to weigh around 400 pounds brought $10.50 to the packers. A bunch of yearling steers in the same consignment and estimated to weigh around 550 brought $10.25 for stockers.—Cattle Clatter.

Miss Jo Reilly attended the graduation exercises of Southwest Texas State Teachers College at San Marcos Tuesday night. Her fiancé, Tommy Marshall, was one of the candidates for a degree. Her sister, Miss Kathleen Reilly, who attended the College at San Marcos, has returned home following the close of school.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Shane and daughter, Miss Robbie Jean, and Mrs. W. O. Shane of Sabin, Mrs. T. E. Woodrume, Miss Elizabeth Reynolds and Mr. Joe Reynolds of San Antonio were here Saturday for the funeral of Miss Josephine Brucks and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Reynolds.

CLARENCE ERNEST FASLER DEAD

Clarence Ernest Faser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Faser of Yancey, died at the local hospital Friday morning, May 23, 1941. His remains were prepared for burial at the Horger funeral home and taken to Yancey where interment was made at four o'clock Saturday afternoon. Services were held at the Methodist church under the auspices of the Seventh Day Adventists of which faith he had long been a member. The pallbearers were Bailey Crain, Leroy Faser, Oland Brieden, Harold Faser, Leroy McCaughan and G. C. McAnnelly Jr.

Deceased was born at Yancey on August 31, 1906, and had reached the age of 34 years, 8 months and 22 days. All his life had been spent at that place, and he was never married. He is mourned by his aged parents, one brother and two or three sisters. Ill health had afflicted him since his early manhood, and without hope of ever recovering death was no doubt a welcome release from protracted suffering. To those who miss him and sorrow because he is no more we extend our sincerest sympathy.

CARD OF THANKS

For the many expressions of sympathy in our sorrow over the untimely passing of our beloved daughter and sister, Josephine, we hereby express our grateful thanks. We are especially grateful to the many who showed their sympathy by their presence at the funeral and for the beautiful flowers.

Yours in sorrow,
MRS. J. BRUCKS
AND FAMILY.

HONDO, TEXAS, MAY 30, 1941

Washington Snapshots by JAMES PRESTON

Every real American would be tremendously interested if he knew the real inside truth behind the Congressional fight over the "Vinson priorities bill", for the basic issue is whether planners and theorists or experienced men shall arm the nation for defense.

Despite the fact that "priorities" is a slightly strange word to many people, the story is simple. It is this: "Priorities" are the mechanism used by government to tell people the order in which they shall produce goods for defense. When factories are loaded above the limit with orders, something has to be made first. The government decides, and issues "priorities" fixing the order in which things should be produced.

A priorities system was inevitable under the present defense program. So government officials created one. They figured too that the people and the factories would believe in the priorities system if they knew that the order of production was being worked out jointly by military men and experienced business men. So they created an agency which brings that close cooperation of military and business men.

Now, though, the system is established and generally accepted. And the planners and theorists, who used to be called "brain trusters," want to run the defense show. They never have liked the influence which Knudsen, Biggers, Stettinius, Nelson and other business men have exerted.

Stettinius, who headed one of the nation's most important businesses, the United States Steel Corporation, was bossing the priorities system, in cooperation with the Army-Navy Munitions Board. So there would be no taint of personal profit, he resigned his U. S. Steel job. But that still left a business man in the driver's seat.

Then Leon Henderson began to forge to the front. He is an economist who has been in Washington ever since NRA, and his prestige and position have both grown rapidly since that time. From Henderson's standing as an economist, it can fairly be deducted that there is considerable logic in having him head up the agency which supervises prices.

The question that is troubling many Washingtonians, however, is whether the price and priorities situation isn't rapidly reaching a stage in which the civilian and military needs supervised by Henderson and Stettinius won't become confused in a kind of "twilight zone." The Cox amendment to the Vinson bill was aimed at achieving clarity in this direction.

—WSS—

Capital friends of the Cox measure point out that it has already been endorsed in substance by high ranking Naval officials in recent testimony before the House Naval Affairs Committee on another bill, known as the Vinson "Cooling Off" measure.

And during the debate on the priorities bill, Representative Vinson said the Cox amendment "breathes statutory life into the Office of Production Management," and continued:

"Why should it not do so? As one member of Congress I want to pass laws to govern the American People instead of governing them through executive orders. . . Why should not a man who almost holds the life and death of industry in this country be confirmed by the Senate?"

The proponents of the Cox amendment "followed through" in this particular line of reasoning when they amended the original bill bearing the Vinson name in order to "freeze" Stettinius in his present job.

That, then, is the background of these happenings. Only time can sketch in the complete foreground.

—WSS—

As for what has been accomplished under the Knudsen-Biggers-Batt-Nelson-Stettinius leadership, A. G. Glancy of OPM had interesting things to say in a recent speech.

One company, he said, which used to turn out 500 fifty-calibre guns a year now is making 5,000 a month. Another company is making machine guns EIGHT MONTHS before the date called for in its contract. He recalled, too, that it took 25 years to build the automobile industry up to 3 1/2 billion dollar annual volume, but that in 2 years the aviation industry has turned into a $5 billion business.

Thus he says that industry is co-operating, continually "offering itself for any use to which we may care to put them." And as for the reward industry expects, he quotes a maker of anti-aircraft guns as saying:

"If possible, try to arrange it so that we get back the same number of dollars that we will have to put into this program."

Yet the planners want to take over the show!

LOCAL COMMITTEE OFFERS TO HELP INDEBTED FARMERS

Mr. Vernor P. King, chairman of the Medina County farm debt adjustment committee, has announced that his group will meet June 2 at 2:00 p. m. to give assistance to farmers who are overburdened with debt. The meeting will be held in the FSA office in Hondo, and all farmers and creditors who can benefit from this service are invited.

"Our committee is giving special attention to small farmers who are so deeply in debt they can never hope to pay out," Mr. King said. "The commonsense thing to do is for these farmers and their creditors to sit down around the table and work out with their farm debt adjustment committee a friendly and fair adjustment of these debts. Both the farmer and his creditors will be better off after a fair agreement has been worked out."

Members of the committee, which works in cooperation with the Farm Security Administration, are: Mr. Vernor P. King, Mr. James Amberson, and Mr. George Briscoe.

ALL IN A DAY

O, HI HO HUM, another day's work just begun;
Washing dishes, such a bore,
Left over from the night before;
That is wrong, as I well know,
But we simply had to go
To the latest picture show.

Now it is the beds to do,
Quilts awry, and sheets askew,
Should have known that all that din,
Was a pillow fight again.
Next to scrub, and dust, and rub,
And some dirty clothes to tub,
Just an everlasting fight,
To keep households looking right.

When you're through, it's time for lunch,
Mercy! such a hungry bunch;
Now, at last, the truth to tell,
I have found a breathing spell;
A tub, catnap, and then to mend,
With holes and runs, from end to end.

But bless their hearts, it's worth the price,
The aching back, and inward strife,
To hear their shouts, and not complain,
But just to have them home again.

—CHRISTA RADEBAUGH.

IN THE LEGISLATURE . . .

by
Rep. Magus F. Smith

(This is one of a series of articles to be written by Mr. Smith for the papers of Southwest Texas every week to inform you of what is happening in the 47th Legislature of the State of Texas. Any opinions herein expressed are his own and not necessarily those of this paper.—M. E.)

Cancer Hospital Bill

The House passed to third reading H. B. No. 238, the Cancer Hospital Bill. The bill appropriates the sum of $1,750,000.00 for the purpose of establishing a hospital, research facilities and two sub-stations for treatment of cancer.

This hospital will be under the supervision of the Board of Regents of The University of Texas and it is generally understood that the hospital unit will be established in connection with the State Medical College at Galveston, Texas.

Statistics from the State Health Department show that 5,823 persons died from cancer in Texas last year and that more than 20,000 persons are now afflicted with this dreadful disease. Cancer is at the present time considered the No. 1 ranking disease, instead of tuberculosis, which held that position until recent years.

The author of the Bill, Rep. Cato, says: "Regardless of what action we take on this Bill, the State will go on year after year paying for cancer, either in cash or in human lives."

H. V. Kaltborn

H. V. Kaltborn, noted radio news analyst, has been invited to address a joint session of the Legislature on May 28, 1941, at 11:00 a. m.

Mr. Kaltborn is expected to be in Austin on that day lecturing at the Gregory Gym, and, consequently, the House has asked him to address a joint session of both houses on the affairs of the Nation.

Beer Sign Bill

The House passed S. B. No. 414, providing that no beer signs shall be displayed on public highways of the State of Texas, except large billboards and electric signs. The purpose of the Bill was to cut out the small, ugly beer signs scattered along the highways obstructing natural scenery and requiring them to be large, attractive advertisements.

DAILY LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Monday, May 26, 1941.

San Antonio, May 26.—HOGS, Estimated salable and total receipts 700. The week's initial trade for hogs developed on a fairly active basis at prices considered fully steady with last Friday. The day's top rested at $9.00 for good and choice 180-270-lb. weights while 160-180 lb. averages cleared at $8.60-9.00. Small packages 140-160 lb. light lights secured $8.00-8.60. Good and choice sows bulked at $7.85-8.00. Feeder pigs remained steady at $7.50-8.00.

CATTLE: Estimated salable and total receipts 1,800; CALVES, 1,400. Despite increased cattle and calf receipts Monday trade moved on a fairly active basis. Steers and yearlings sold fully steady with late last week, some instances as much as 25c higher. Various lots good yearlings secured $9.25-9.50 with most medium grade offerings at $8.00-9.00, common appeared at $7.25-7.75. Odd head good and choice cashed at $10.00-10.50. Around eight loads mature medium grade 1082-1280 lb. steers cashed at $8.50-9.00 with other loadlots at $8.00-8.25. A load common 836 lb. averages made $6.90.

Slughter cows sold generally steady with common to good beef cuts at $5.50-$7.00. Cannery and cutters bulked at $3.75-5.50, occasional strong weight cutters up to $6.00. Sausage bulls indicated little change at $6.50-7.50. Odd head common light weight dairy descriptions sold down to $5.50. Killing calves 400 lbs. down cashed fully steady as good offerings sold mainly at $9.50-10.25. Common and medium earned $7.25-9.50 with culls at $6.00-7.00. Choice around 400 lb. weights reached $11.00.

Supplies stockers and feeders were rather small. Values remained generally steady as good and choice steer calves secured $10.50-12.50, odd lots sold to $13.00 or better. Medium grade selections appeared at $8.50-9.50. Good and choice heifer calves sold mainly at $10.00-10.50, odd lots to $11.00. Medium and good yearling stockers commanded $8.75-10.00.

SHEEP: Estimated salable and total receipts 1,000. Fresh supplies fat lambs Monday proved small. Medium and good shorn kinds made $7.50. Medium and good shorn aged wethers were eligible around $4.24-4.75. Scattered sales shorn bucks came in at $3.00-3.25, few to $3.75.

GLEN L. ELLISON, Local Representative.

NOTE: The San Antonio market will be open Memorial Day, May 30.

"CHEROKEE STRIP"—Friday and Saturday, Western film with beautiful and rugged outdoor backgrounds, stirring music and a novel story of a family feud. A notable cast, headed by Richard Dix, includes Florence Rice, Victor Jory, Andy Clyde, George E. Stone, Morris Ankrum and Douglas Fowler.

"MICHAEL SHAYNE, PRIVATE DETECTIVE"—Sunday and Monday, comedy-mystery in which a private detective gets himself an assignment to keep an eye on an heir who likes to gamble. The cast is composed of Lloyd Nolan, Marjorie Weaver, Joan Valerie, Walter Abel and Elizabeth Patterson.

"ANDY HARDY'S PRIVATE SECRETARY"—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the latest in the Hardy family series which also is the film debut of Kathryn Grayson, 17-year-old singer. The cast includes Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone and Ann Rutherford. Andy was so busy running the High School graduation that he forgot to study—and almost misses graduating himself!

ON THE FARM

The farm is just the place to be. Most especially in the Spring; When life is beautiful to see. With Nature her young to bring. Forth to the busy world's way. When embryos burst their bonds; It surely is a wonderful day. When the ducklings swim the ponds.

The farm is just the place to be. When fluffy chicks come to view; Where eggs are bursting, there to see.

Wonders of nature anew; Too many there be to relate. Within this little rhyme; But what a joyous fate. When everything hatches on time.

The farm is just the place to be. In Summer or in Spring, For there most likely you will see The Birth of Everything.

Bearing that beautiful lily with pride
I graced the altar for a spring bride.

POULTRY

How Much Grain to Feed

Hens of Various Breeds

Most people who are attempting to put the flock on a scientific basis are perplexed as to the amount of grain which they should feed to their hens. Some people feed by measure, others by "handfuls" and most people by guesswork.

Measure feeding is probably to be condemned more than any other method. Merely giving a quart pail of grain to the hens and letting it go at that is what causes so many poor flock records over the country. The hens should be fed all that they will consume never by measure, yet measures can be used as an indication of the amount they are likely to require.

Morning feeding of grain should be just sufficient to get the hens busy. But make a good morning feed and one quart to a hundred hens will keep them busy most of the morning, but where a balanced grain and mash ration is being fed you will not want to disturb it by feeding oats alone in the morning. Feed a small quantity of the grain mixture you are using in the morning, only enough to get the hens working and give them all they want at night.

Experiments carried on by the federal poultry farm authorities have brought out some interesting figures as to how much grain and mash by weight is required for fowls per day. General-purpose fowls, such as Rocks, Reds and Wyandottes, require one quart of scratch grain and a quart and a half of mash per day for each 13 hens, or for each 16 hens of the smaller or egg breeds. This is at the rate of 7½ pounds each of grain and mash per day for 100 Leghorns and 9½ pounds of each to 100 general-purpose fowls. Hens having range consume 75 pounds of feed in a year while the Leghorns consume 55 pounds in addition to the green food eaten.

Table Scraps Important

Item for Small Flocks

Table scraps become an important item for a small flock, but are of little value for large numbers. The small flock will pay at all seasons, because the scraps lessen the cost of the food by permitting the utilization of waste materials that would otherwise go into the slop barrel. For this reason every family should keep a few hens, even if but half a dozen, and especially the families that live in the suburbs of cities and towns, or who have a space that can be utilized for that purpose. The greatest obstacle is the attempt to keep too many. Be satisfied with a few, and the cost will be less and the result more satisfactory.

Turkeys in Confinement

Need Careful Guarding

Those who grow turkeys in confinement must, of necessity, guard carefully against overfeeding throughout the summer, though in the absence of infection caused by the presence of adult birds, there seems to be comparatively little danger from blackhead at this time. Hopper-feeding of dry mash to birds in confinement has been found entirely safe at Purdue, where 60 were raised to the age of twelve weeks or more and a dozen raised to maturity, always in confinement. The dry mash, consisting of equal parts of bran and shorts, was kept before the turkeys in hoppers.

Roosts on Same Level

Prevent Many Ailments

The old-time step-ladder roost, with one round four or five feet from the floor and the others lower until the lowest is near the floor, takes up a large share of space in the poultry house, and is unserviceable, as the birds will instinctively go upon the high roosts in preference to the lower ones, some of the fowls being forced down while others are injured by jumping off in the morning. It is to high roosts that bumblefoot and lameness may be attributed, and it is cheaper to have low roosts, all on the same level, than to doctor fowls for lameness.

POULTRY NOTES

Proper feeds and feeding are the best "poultry tonics."

When the weather is favorable every chick should spend time on the ground each day.

Many thousands of dollars are lost every year in the poultry industry on account of various diseases contracted in the yards where the laying fowls are kept.

Do not tolerate sick chicks in the flock. The initial cost is small. The loss in trying to raise them is too great.

Cockerels from early hatches generally mature more rapidly and at less expense than those of midsummer hatches.

Small drinking fountains are always becoming empty. Then the chicks suffer with thirst and when the fountain filled they trample each other in the fight for water.

Trees can be grown without irrigation in any county in Texas. That goes for shade trees, windbreaks, and trees grown as ornaments, says Sadie Hatfield, specialist in landscape gardening for the A. and M. College Extension Service. But she admits there's a trick in it. The secret of success is in properly collecting and storing rain water in the soil for the growth of the trees. During the spring and summer terraces and contours should be made so as to collect and hold moisture which falls during the summer and fall months. Soil is the natural, the best, and the easiest place to keep water for growing trees in the Panhandle, on the plains, and in all the drier regions of Texas. It is true that three or four acres of soil may be needed to produce one acre of good trees, for it is necessary to divert water from nearby soil in order to give a tree or a group of trees the equivalent of two or three times the annual rainfall of a semi-arid region. Terracing and contouring practices can bring about diversion of water to almost any area selected for trees. Among the trees being grown successfully (and have been grown for a decade) by landscape improvement demonstrators and others on the plains and in the Panhandle are black walnut, red cedar, desert willow, green ash, hackberry, honey locust, jujube, mulberry, osage orange (or bois d'arc), Russian olive, salt cedar, vitex, wild plum, lilac, and Chinese elms.

Last year Bill King, of Carrizo Springs, (Dimmit county), started out with eight chuckers, and now has

128 ready for mating. He used practically the same method of brooding the young chuckers as is used in brooding young chicks with lamp brooders. As soon as the eggs hatch, the young chuckers are placed in the net wire brooder that keeps them off the ground. Mr. King states that a hen chucker will lay approximately 40 eggs a season, and the number of hens hatched will outnumber the cocks in a ratio of 8 to 5. Sixteen eggs are given each bantam to hatch. In feeding the young chuckers, a high protein feed was used and was the same used to start young poult. The young chuckers are fed a lot of sour milk at all times, which has been found to be very beneficial. Mr. King is raising the chuckers to be used as stock in new areas where there is a demand for them.

Beauty Authority

John Powers, head of the world's largest and most famous modelling agency at New York, will act as chairman of the judges committee in the contest to be held at Memphis in January to select the girl to represent the entire raw cotton industry in a nationwide fashion promotion next year. Mr. Powers' models, called the "most beautiful girls in the world" have included such Hollywood celebrities as Jean Arthur, Dolores Costello, Joan Bennett, Norma Shearer, Barbara Stanwyck and Joan Blondell.

Modern Alice In Wonderland

A present-day version of the Alice who stepped through the looking glass into a magic world, Alice Erle Beasley of LaGrange, Tenn., 1941 Maid of Cotton, is preparing to embark from Miami on February 24 on a three month air tour of cotton fashion shows in 28 major cities from New York to Salt Lake City. Sponsored by the National Cotton Council, the Memphis Cotton Carnival Association, and the Cotton Exchanges of New York, Memphis and New Orleans, the Maid of Cotton is the official fashion ambassador of the raw cotton industry. She will be accompanied by Clark Porteous of Memphis, tour manager; and by Miss Ruth Witmer, Lux stylist and chaperone.

That Senatorial Race

There are really just four candidates in the current political contest for the seat in the United States Senate vacated by the death of Hon. Morris Sheppard. All the others are just going for the ride.

If the election was held in late May or early June, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel would win in a walk. By late June the other three runners-up may make it necessary for him to trot a bit.

It is true that his Excellency has lost the "moral" support of the big oil and other industrial interests who liked his first term as governor so well "because he didn't do anything." They had kidded themselves into believing that since he wanted so much in the way of new taxes he could get nothing.

And they got a 4½c and per cent petroleum production tax and other levies in proportion. And they got it right in the State Senate, where heretofore they have always had things pretty well under control.

But at this particular time W. Lee O'Daniel doesn't need any of Jim West's millions or the good will of any or all of the Houston and Dallas millionaires. Their support in this senate race will be about as valuable as an orange shirt at an Irish picnic.

It is strictly a race between the O'Danielites vs. the anti-O'Danielites, and you may lay to that.

The only hope of a showing against the Governor comes from the debonaire Congressman Lyndon Johnson, one of President Roosevelt's little yes-boys. It will be interesting to see just how many of "my friends" in Texas will go along with the President's choice.

But with all the king's horses and all the king's men, including the sons and in-laws, the New Dealers will hardly know which way Pappy passed the biscuits.

We are not praising the man—we are just admitting his political strength.

Elimination of all the other candidates and a concentration on and behind Johnson might make it interesting—but the Great White Father will have to send down to Texas more than ten thousand dollars out of the war chest of the Democratic party if he expects young Lyndon to joust with popular Pappy.

Johnson's congressional career has been highlighted by his genuine loyalty to the Chief, and his ability at tapping the federal pork-barrel. But fat Wilbur has just opened up a 42 million dollar swine-keg of his own making—don't forget that, Mr. President.

Gerald C. Mann will make a nice clean race and strengthen his chances of beating out Coke Stevenson in the gubernatorial battle next Summer. As his apparent to O'Daniel's throne in Texas, the gentleman from Junction will have an advantage in the line over the passing ability of Jerry.

If Congressman Martin Dies ever had a chance to be elected United States Senator from Texas, he lost it when his hand was called by the hard hitting President of the University of Texas, as the latter demanded a show down on the Forty Acres. That "put up or shut up" challenge put the lemon from Orange in the can.

So, you will soon be getting your Sunday morning sermon on wax from Washington.

Food and drug inspectors of the State Health Department found that only 36.6 per cent of the 1,070 food establishments surrounding Camp Bowie met satisfactory standards. Only 57 of 106 dairies in the ten county area were entitled to use the Grade A label.

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann has held as constitutional HB-46 designed to levy a gross receipts tax on fire insurance companies for the purpose of setting up a firemen's relief and retirement fund.

The prescription liquor racket in dry areas of Texas is now expected to be properly controlled since enactment of HB-373, the Blankenship Law designed for that purpose.

One thing we like about a democracy—we are not compelled to tune in the radio when some official wants to make a speech.

In science something goes bust and then boom—in economics it goes boom and then bust.

D'HANIS, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1941

George Ilse has left for Baltimore, Md., where he is employed in Civil service.

Mrs. A. J. Boog and family left Sunday for San Antonio where they will make their home. Their friends regret their departure but wish them success. Mr. Boog will remain at D'Hanis for the present.

The following motored to San Antonio Saturday for the wedding of Miss Laurinda Rothe, daughter of Judge A. H. Rothe, to D. W. McGee Jr., of that city; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reinhart, Miss Lena Reinhart, Mrs. H. C. Rothe, Misses Josie, Lucy and Ethel Rothe, Miss Cornelia Koch and Judge and Mrs. A. H. Rothe.

Mervin Poerner of San Antonio attended the graduation exercises of St. Anthony's School Sunday when his sister, Effie Poerner, received her high school diploma.

Miss Johnnie Love, student nurse of Santa Rosa Infirmary, San Antonio, came home for the graduation of her brothers, James and Robert Love, last Friday evening.

Ferd Louis Rothe, who has completed his sophomore year at St. Mary's University in San Antonio, has come home for his summer vacation.

ST. ANTHONY'S SCHOOL NEWS

Junior-Senior Banquet

The Junior Class of St. Anthony's High School honored the Seniors with a banquet in the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening, May 21. Guests included Reverend Eugene Zuber, director of the school, the High School students, and their parents.

A variety of spring flowers and ferns adorned the banquet table and hall. James Richter was toastmaster, and announced the following program: salutatory, Kathryn Holliday; poem, "Our School," Agnes Neher; class prophecy, Edward Koch; class will, David Zinsmeyer; poem, Effie Poerner; valedictory, Bertha Koch; school song, students; Rev. Zuber addressed the assembly before the close of the banquet.

The menu consisted of baked chicken, potato chips, fruit salad, tomatoes on lettuce leaves, olives, ice cream, and iced tea.

Members of the Junior Class are: Donna Mae Britz, Mary Ann Finger, Ruth Huser, Edward Koch, James Richter, and Bernard Zinsmeyer. The honorees were Kathryn Holliday, Bertha Koch, Agnes Neher, and Effie Poerner.

Commencement Day

Pink gladiolus, the class flower of the Senior Class of St. Anthony's High School, was used in profusion to decorate the main altar of Holy Cross Church, where Commencement Day observances were held on Sunday, May 25. Potted ferns and floor baskets further carried out the class colors, pink and Nile green.

At 8 A. M. the members of the entire student body marched in procession from the school to the church, where they attended the Sunday morning services. During the High Mass they received Holy Communion in a body.

The Commencement Exercises were solemn and impressive, and took place in the church at 8 o'clock in the evening. A processional march was played on the pipe organ as the students proceeded along the center aisle, forming an escort for the Seniors and the Seventh Grade. The four girl graduates, wearing white caps and gowns with corsages of pink gladioli, knelt on prie-dieu in the aisle during the services. Following the Rosary, High School diplomas were awarded to Kathryn Holliday, Bertha Koch, Agnes Neher, and Effie Poerner. The presentation was made by the pastor, Reverend Eugene Zuber. Flower girls in pink and green attended the graduates; they were Charlotte Koch, Frances Zerr, Irene Neher, and Anita Poerner. Members of the Seventh Grade received certificates as follows: Mary Linda Finger, Imelda Huser, Emily Zinsmeyer, and Jack Zinsmeyer. Certificates for regular attendance were awarded to Bertha Koch, Charlotte Koch, Louise Koch, Patsy Lou Zerr, Leo Koch, James Richter, and Herbert Zinsmeyer.

Reverend Zuber preached an inspiring sermon on religious education, using for his text these words from the Gospel of St. Matthew, vi, 33: "Seek ye therefore first the kingdom of God, and His justice, and all these things shall be added unto you." He closed with special exhortations to the graduates.

Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was followed by the Recessional.

Ushers were Jack Finger and Joe William Rothe.

D'HANIS HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Grammar School in Program

The pupils of the D'Hanis Grammar School were presented on Wednesday evening, May 21, in an operetta entitled "Aunt Drusilla's Garden". The High School auditorium with its new outdoor stage scenery recently purchased by the D'Hanis P.T.A., was the setting for the entertainment, which included besides the dialogue and singing, a gypsy dance, an Indian dance, and a doll dance. Carmen Boog, as Aunt Drusilla, sang several solos. Other character parts were played by Mary D. Bendele, Inell Braden, Ruby Nester, Herbert Nester, Thomas Williams, and Alton Schmidt. The school Rhythm Band also contributed to the program.

On Thursday the grade pupils, their teachers, and several parents spent the day at Garner Park.

D. H. S. Graduates its Largest Class

The Commencement Exercises of the Class of 1941 of the D'Hanis High School took place in the High School auditorium on Friday, May 23, at 8:15 P. M. At this time fourteen Seniors, comprising the largest class to graduate here to date, were presented with diplomas by Mr. Paul Reinhart, president of the board of trustees.

During the Processional, the members of the class, robed in blue gowns and mortar-board caps with tassels of purple and gold, marched to their places on the stage. Here were seated Mr. Bascom Story, Superintendent Herman Couser, and the members of the school board.

The salutatory address was given by Barbara Boog. "Farewell to Friends", a vocal duet, was sung by Elmer Keller, baritone, and Robert Love, tenor. The valedictory address, "Education in Defense", was given by Stella Nester. This was followed by a chorus, Deppen's "In the Garden of Tomorrow", sung by the entire class.

Superintendent Couser introduced the speaker of the evening, Deputy State Superintendent Bascom Story of San Antonio, who delivered an enlightening and interesting address.

High School diplomas were presented to the following: Elaine Biry, Barbara Boog, Beatrice Keller, Mary Ann Lutz, Sarah Nester, Stella Nester, Mayme Del Rieber, Joe Henry Biry, Richard Hitzfeldt, Elmer Keller, James Love, Robert Love, James Rudinger, and Jimmy Zinsmeyer. High-ranking girl and boy of the class were Stella Nester and James Rudinger.

Superintendent Couser presented medals for high averages in High School to Stella Nester and Louis Schmidt, and for high averages in Grammar School of Sherline Marquardt and R. C. Schmidt. A medal for three years of perfect attendance was awarded to Imogene Bendele, and certificates for perfect attendance during the past year went to Charlotte Boog, Mathilda Kimmerly, Sarah Nester, and Geneva Rieber. A medal for typing was presented to Virginia Lowrance. Grammar School certificates for completion of the Seventh Grade were awarded to Harvey Pete Saathoff and Kermit Wolff.

The Commencement Exercises were concluded with the recessional.

5TH ANNUAL BIG BASS CONTEST GETS UNDER WAY

Each year the Western Auto Supply Company sponsors their well-known and popular "Big Bass" contest. This contest is open to all anglers in each of the 38 states in which there is located a Western Auto Store or a Western Associate Store. The total list value of the tackle used as prizes this year will exceed $4500.00. First prize winners in each state will receive an award consisting of tackle with list value of $40.00, second prize 30.00 value, third prize $25.00, fourth prize $15.00 and fifth prize $12.00. In addition an attractive trophy cup will be awarded to the fisherman registering the largest small mouth bass whether it be a regular prize winner or not.

All fishermen and contestants are urged to register at once. Free entry blanks with instructions are available at any Western Auto Store or Western Auto Associate Store. There are no obligations, or prizes necessary. The contest is free and open to all. The official starting date is May 15 (subject to local or state laws). Contest closes September 30. All catches must be sworn to before a notary public or verified by a Western Auto Store manager or Western Auto Associate Store owner.

Since each of the 38 states will have its own set of awards, all fishermen in Texas will be competing only with other entries caught in this state. Thus, all fishermen in this locality will have an equal chance for one of the valuable prizes.

The purpose of this contest is to further increase public interest in the sport of fishing and add to this pleasure a spirit of friendly competition. The contest is becoming increasingly popular throughout the country due to the many valuable prizes offered and Western Auto's system of awarding separate prizes for each state.

After tabulating the results of the 1940 contest Western found that the greater number of entries were from Florida, Arkansas and Michigan; that among 190 winners, 184 registered bass weighing 4 pounds or more, 84, 6 pounds or more and 12 entries were 10 pounds or more. The largest was from Florida and weighed over 16 pounds, the smallest weighed slightly over 2 pounds. The scores on some of the better known lures in the 1940 contest were:

Hondo's River Runt, 24 winners.
Hobogast Jitterbugs, 11 winners.
Heldon's Lucky 13, 7 winners.
Haddon's Wiggles, 7 winners.
Al Bass Lures, 4 winners.
Heldon's Crazy Crawlers, 3 winners.

Shannon Spinners, 3 winners.
Creek Chub Dingbats, 3 winners.
Dry flies took 4 prizes with the balance of the winners being quite evenly divided among other popular lures.

Nylon lines according to Western were used by 29 lucky entrants and 20 of the 190 prize winners were taken with fly rods.

According to H. W. Kollman of the local Western Associate Store, several of the prize-winning catches for Texas were made in the waters of Medina Lake, both in 1939 and 1940.

Applications of organized cotton improvement groups for free classification and market news services for cotton grown in 1941 by these groups may be made by any organized cotton improvement group as soon as its members have planted their cotton, but the application must be filed with the Agricultural Marketing Service not later than August 1, for groups in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and the counties of Texas lying entirely or for the most part east of the 100th Meridian. To allow for later planting in other areas, the final date for filing is August 15 for groups in North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Oklahoma, and all counties in Texas lying entirely or for the most part west of the 100th Meridian, as well as New Mexico, Arizona, and California. Groups should apply early so they will receive instruction and supplies in time to obtain classification of their early-ginned cotton. Instructions for making application and forms for applying can be obtained by addressing offices of the Agricultural Marketing Service: 441 W. Peachtree St., N. E., Atlanta, Ga.; Box 363, Memphis, Tenn.; Box 1369, Dallas, Texas; Box 1140, Austin, Texas; Room 517, U. S. Court House Building, El Paso, Texas; or 210 Progressive Building, Bakersfield, California.

Formal opening of the West Texas Woolen Mills at Eldorado recently gives Texas three wool manufacturing concerns, two of them in South Texas, the South Texas Chamber of Commerce noted. "Texas, leader of all states in wool and mohair production, is just now coming into its own as a processor of those products," it was pointed out by Executive Vice President Ray Leeman of the regional chamber. "Most of the production still goes east for processing, but undoubtedly the new manufacturing plants are the forerunners of others." Cen-Tex Wool & Mohair Company at San Marcos, originally a wool and mohair scouring project, is said to have been Texas' first complete wool processing plant. Manufacturing equipment for making comforters, blankets and the like recently was installed there. The Eldorado plant will turn out similar loose-woolen textiles. At New Braunfels, in South Texas, the Robert R. Pent Company of Philadelphia is installing the Southwest's first wool-topping plant.

A schedule of the twelve district meetings to be held this spring by the Texas Home Demonstration Association has been announced by the president, Mrs. A. J. Brown of Nederland, Jefferson County. Dates and meeting places have been arranged as follows: District 1, Pampa, April 21; District 2, Plainview, April 19; District 3, Vernon, April 17; District 4, Cleburne, April 22; District 5, Paris, April 23; District 6, Big Spring, April 16; District 7, Stephenville, April 19; District 8, Marlin, April 21 and 22; District 9, Lufkin, April 29; District 10, Seguin, April 19; District 11, La Grange, April 25; and District 12, Raymondville, April 17. The Association's state convention, planned September 3 to 5, will be held in Beaumont, Mrs. Brown says. At that meeting, new officers will be elected to serve more than 40,000 home demonstration club women during two-year terms.

J. M. Phillips, of near Lubbock, (Lubbock county), during the season just closed, planted 23 acres to a variety of yellow sweet potatoes known as "Maryland Sweet", which have yielded an average of 500 bushels an acre, he reports. The best acre produced 850 bushels of yams. Total production cost was $57 an acre. Total returns from the potatoes were around $10,000, or a net of some $8,000 after deducting expenses.

Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Falkenberg were in San Antonio Tuesday evening for the marriage of Rev. Falkenberg's brother, Rev. Milton A. Falkenberg, to Miss Evangeline Staats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Staats of San Antonio. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. W. Dannhaus of Boerne at eight o'clock May 27, 1941, in Christ Lutheran Church.
